

www.isotropic.net

P.O. Box 472133

Tulsa, OK 74147-2133

+1 (918) 742-4141

doug.carter@isotropic.net

Management and technology consulting

Specializing in telecommunications networks with an emphasis on technology

- Problem solving (technology, organizational, process)
- Business development
- Product development
- Network design, development and cost reduction

Recent projects include:

- management and technology problem solving in carrier networks
- strategic network and infrastructure plans and budgets
- high level architecture of VoIP service networks
- due diligence of consolidation targets
- end user service design of integrated voice and broadband data based services
- Lawful Intercept compliance
- IP Peering negotiations

Engagement: Retainer or fixed fee.

Doug Carter, Managing Member, has thirty five years experience in the business and technology growth of telecommunications companies serving in senior technical and general management in wireless, CLEC, ISP and satellite service companies.

- Member of the Industry Executive Subcommittee of NSTAC
- VP Technology, Clearwire
- SVP Engineering & Chief Technology Officer, XO Communications
- VP, Teledesic Global Communications
- SVP, AT&T Wireless Communications
- President, System Integration, Inc.
- Chief Technology Officer, MSI Communications

Associates: Isotropic is networked with associates around the world with extraordinary experience in telecommunications management consulting including John Curran who has twenty years experience in the business technology growth of Internet and telecommunications companies serving in senior technical management in data engineering, ISP and telecommunications companies

- Senior Member Technical Staff, BBN
- Chief Technical Officer, BBN Planet / BBN / GTE Internetworking
- Vice President, Data Engineering, Nextlink Communications / XO
- Chief Technology Officer, XO Communications (XO)

Current Chairman, American Registry of Internet Numbers